

SecurityScorecard Announces Distribution Partnership with Ingram Micro to Accelerate Growth in Singapore

Partnership significantly expands SecurityScorecards' ability to provide organizations in Singapore access to a proactive, data-driven approach to managing cybersecurity risks

Singapore, 30 October 2023 - SecurityScorecard, the global leader in cybersecurity ratings, announces a strategic distribution partnership with Ingram Micro, the largest global wholesale provider of technology products and supply chain management services.

The partnership gives organizations in the region access to SecurityScorecard's proprietary ratings system. With the cybersecurity insurance market size projected to grow from USD10.3 billion in 2023 to USD17.6 billion by 2028, ensuring strong security ratings will significantly help companies to reduce their premiums. Using easy-to-understand A-F graded scorecards, SecurityScorecard and its team of industry experts provide organizations with deep analysis of cyber threat intelligence and comprehensive monitoring and assessment tools to manage third-party risk, ensure compliance reporting is accurate, and help foster more informed decisions.

"Ingram Micro is seeing an enormous rise of data breaches and hacking incidents worldwide," said Eunice Lau, Executive Managing Director, Ingram Micro Asia Pte Ltd, "With the addition of SecurityScorecard's trusted cybersecurity ratings data, organizations throughout the region will be better equipped to manage and communicate risk, translate those risks into financial impact and identify risks from third and fourth-party vendors. Partnership with SecurityScorecard strengthens our current set of solutions and will provide great value to our customers."

Security Scorecard's industry-leading security ratings, automated assessments, and comprehensive third-party risk management will strengthen Ingram Micro's security solutions portfolio, allowing companies across industries to transform how they understand, mitigate, and communicate cybersecurity risk to their boards, employees, and vendors.

"2023 is a year that faces mounting cyber-security threats across the globe and Ingram Micro being a leading security solutions distributor and specialist service provider, makes it an ideal distribution partner to help mitigate these risks," said Albert Kuo, Vice President of APAC Sales at SecurityScorecard. "Our partnership with Ingram Micro allows us to further grow our reach and intelligence in the APAC region and gives companies throughout Singapore the tools to transform their security posture while maintaining compliance with government regulations."
